Vandercook Lake High School Bands

Concert Band

The Concert Band is composed of our seventh grade brass, woodwind, and percussion students. This band is a performance and competition band. The Concert Band performs 4 concerts a year consisting of: a fall informance in late October, a holiday concert in December, MSBOA District Festival in March, and a spring concert in May. Students must have successfully completed a year with the Red & White band or have directors permission to participate.
